WHAT WE DO IN EUROPE AND ROMANIA

Terre des hommes (Tdh) is the leading Swiss child relief agency. Founded in 1960, we are committed to improving the lives of millions of the world's most vulnerable children. Through our innovative protection and health projects, we provide assistance to over three million children and their families in almost forty countries each year. In Europe, Tdh intervenes directly or indirectly in many countries, relying on teams based in Budapest, Albania, Greece, Kosovo, Romania, Moldova and Ukraine.

In Romania, Terre des hommes (Tdh Ro) has been active since 1992. For the past few years, the delegation has been working on three main intervention areas: (1) Strengthening child protection and juvenile justice systems, (2) Protection of children affected by migration/trafficking, and (3) Social inclusion of minorities. Every year thousands of children and their families benefit from projects implemented either at a national or regional level. During the last years, the organization continued to build on its experience in Access to Justice (A2J) by piloting new methodologies in order to contribute positively to the personal development, rehabilitation and social reintegration of children and youth deprived of liberty, and by promoting restorative measures.

ROLE DESCRIPTION

The Programme Manager takes part in the creation of the intervention strategy for the country and its implementation, in collaboration with the country lead(s). Ensures the good development of various projects within the designated programmatic areas (primarily A2J and collaboratively - Protection) and assists with the development, implementation, and adjustments of projects strategies to achieve their goals. S/he plays a key role in building the country's knowledge and network, coordinating with the programme's stakeholders, identifying financial resources and grants, leading and contributing to proposal development in collaboration with the country leader(s) and the team. S/he contributes to the growth of the programme and ensures organizational efficiency through participation in the design, development, implementation and management of all work related to the programme.
